Captain Gray sent them all forward and told them that if they would not work they could not have anything to eat. Later one of them came to the captain and said that if he would have the guard arrested they would return to work. It is thought the men will have cooled off and will return to their duty today.

Salt Water in Literature.

Our best literature is rich in sea phrases. Poets, statesmen and pulpit orators all acknowledge the value of nautical metaphor, so to speak. Dr. Cuyler, the distinguished divine, in a political address recently, was felicitous in references of this kind. A few samples from his remarks are as follows:
